Stories

To set foot in Raffles Le Royal is to participate in a story that began when the hotel first opened in 1929. With each day that passes and each resident that stays, a new page is written.

1929

Le Royal – Cambodia’s first five-star hotel – opened with a lavish ball, attended by His Majesty Sisowath Monivong (reigned 1927-1941) which took place on 20th of November 1929.

1936

The matinee idol Charlie Chaplin, accompanied by his co-star of ‘Modern Times’ Paulette Goddard, visited Phnom Penh in April 1936 on their way to Angkor and stayed at Le Royal with their entourage.

1997

The hotel re-opened as Raffles Le Royal, following major renovations and having been taken over by Singapore-based Raffles Group – increasing the hotel’s original capacity three-fold.

2020

The hotel embarked on a meticulous restoration project to reinvigorate Cambodia’s la grande dame with modern conveniences and stylish new additions to mark the hotel’s 90-year anniversary.
